

Raman Kalyan The Flautist

Raman Kalyan, popularly known as “Flute Raman” is one of the world’s leading Flautists in the Carnatic style of Music. Raman won the “Best Flautist Award” from Madras Music Academy & is a featured artist in the "Miles from India" tour & performs with legends Dave Liebman (Grammy Winner), Lenny White, Mandolin Shrinivas, Selvaganesh (Remember Shakti), Darryl Jones (Rolling Stones), and John Beasley (Finding Nemo). Raman has also been touring as a special guest with the legendary Singer & Guinness record holder K.J. Yesudas. Raman’s latest CD, "Music for Deep Meditation", produced by Inner Splendour Media, reached the #1 Spot on the Apple I tunes in the world music category & has been on the top 50 for more than 6 months. As a performer, Composer, producer, educator, he has performed in all genres of music and has been very successful as a Music Composer. He has scored music for many Audio / Video Albums; CD’s and has released more than 50 Cds which includes several best sellers through various labels worldwide.

Raman has also worked with all leading dance legends like the Dhananjayans, C.V. Chandrashekar, and Adyar Lakshman. He has toured globally and has performed at many world’s prestigious venues like the Lincoln center , Kennedy Center , Smithsonian , Royal festival Hall to name a few.

“V.K. Raman... extremely musical and expressive... sweetness and sensitivity of tone... captivating... soulful music flowed from the heart.” - The Hindu, Chennai, India.

Raman’s recordings and live performances are testimony to a profound musical sensibility as a composer and Musician of the highest order. -- Glen Velez. World Frame drummer & Grammy Winner.

For more info, visit www.ramankalyan.com