Megha Kalyan: Flautist

Megha Ranjani Kalyan was initiated into Carnatic music at the age of nine by her father and Guru Sri Raman Kalyan. Under his tutelage, she cultivated a strong interest in the bamboo flute. Megha has performed in various events over the years and aspires to become a fine musician. Megha has performed alongside her Guru at many major festivals and at many prestigious venues.

Apart from learning the Carnatic bamboo flute, Megha also played the Western classical flute and has taken part in the school choir. In 2011 she won the Superintendent's Music Award and in 2013, she was awarded the Music Honor Award at Rocky Run Middle School. Megha honed her skills on the bamboo flute and began pursuing it with fervor. Her bond with the music and her Guru has led her to have a true passion and interest in learning the flute and a love for all genres of music. Megha also excelled in her flute graduation in 2016 with Mysore Srikanth on violin and Bangalore Praveen on mridangam .

Megha enjoys touring with the musicians and accompanying dance performances and looking forward for greater achievements in the field of music.
